

Dr.Fuminori Muranaga,M.D. Ph.D is a neurologist, but

Dr. Muranaga is interested in information science from school days and acquires a doctorate of the medical information science in Kagoshima University graduate school.

Dr.Muranaga works as a full-time research associate of the medical information division of the Kagoshima University hospital now. and conducts the administration management of the general hospital information system mainly on the electronic chart.

Dr.Muranaga is concerned with development of the patients participation type telemedicine system "IT Karte", and the patients with malignant brain tumor cooperate with a physician of the neurosurgery by this system.

Dr.Muranaga is engaged in the education to a medical student. Dr.Muranaga teach in particular the on-site training of the telemedicine using an IT Karte system to a medical student in the remote island clinics.