

BIO: Madeleine de Rosas-Valera, MD, MScIH (Heidelberg)

Activities: Co-Chairperson, Healthcare 2 Session, APAN Hongkong
Technical Officers, Health Service Delivery, Health Sector Development, Western Pacific Regional Office, WHO

Dr. de Rosas-Valera primary responsibilities are: to provide support to Member States and the Western Pacific Region in designing healthcare programmes that are people-centered and serve the needs of individuals and communities; to ensure patient safety and quality improvement principles are fully integrated in the health sector in a sustainable manner; and to use evidence, best practices and research to guide program development

Experiences: Health Financing, Health Facility Accreditation, Health Technology Assessment, Quality Assurance, Policy Development, Social Health Insurance, Primary Health Care, Community Mobilization, Health Informatics