

M. Stella Atkins received the BSc degree in Chemistry from Nottingham University in 1966 and the PhD degree in Computer Science from the University of British Columbia in 1985. She is a Professor Emerita in the School of Computing Science at Simon Fraser University (SFU) in Vancouver, Canada, and Director of the Medical Computing Lab at SFU.

Her research interests include telemedicine, medical image display and analysis (especially for dermoscopy), medical image segmentation, the use of eyegaze trackers for medical applications such as for surgery training, and radiology workstation design.